RON

Centuries-old mastery of the Cuban "RONEROS", passed down from generation to generation. Rum-making in Cuba is ingrained in the hearts and in the faces tanned by true Cuban sunshine. Add to that sun-drenched plantations of the finest sugar cane and a passion handed down from generation to generation for more than 500 years, and it is clear that any attempt to imitate genuine Cuban rum is futile, because it was not made in this place and cannot benefit from the climatic advantages of this island. So let us keep in mind the dignity of true rum with every sip. "Para Los Santos".
